REPORT ON STUDENT FEEDBACK: GENERAL

Feedback of students on their overall experience in college was taken. Students appreciated the academic discipline of the college and were impressed with the use and effectiveness of e-resources especially during the pandemic, when teaching-learning took the online route. The interactive and accessibility of the staff was also acknowledged by the students. While students found the facilities of the college very helpful, they requested for a Help Desk, to have better and prompt access to information regarding college and University and also a better canteen.

Feedback Report of Teachers - 2021-22

Feedback of teachers on college was taken and the teachers acknowledged that the college has many liberal policies in place which gives greater flexibility to function.

They would appreciate it if LMS is developed and suggested ICT facilities to be improved, increase in the number of smart classrooms, and the latest software systems to be upgraded.

Financial support to be provided for research, upgrading skills and qualifications. Distresser activities to be conducted. Appreciate if office staff should be more approachable and respect the teaching staff.

Overall they feel a conducive environment and excellent team work in the college.
